Take the A2 from the M25 , direction Canterbury / Dover. Take the A228 from the A2, direction Grain. Allhallows is signposted from this road.

Allhallows Yacht Club is reached through the "Allhallows Leisure Park" On the following pages you will find a car pass to allow you access through the park. Please ensure it is visible in the car at all times.

Once through the manned security checkpoint take the second turn to the right and follow the road directly to the yacht club.

Camping, under canvas or in campers, is free for the weekend and toilets / showers etc. are available in the club house. Please seek the marshall's directions before 'pitching up'.

There are caravans to rent on the site: go to www.haven.com and follow the link to Allhallows. To book directly contact Tennea O'sullivan on 01634 270266 or tennea.osullivan@bourne-leisure.co.uk and be sure to quote AYC.

Food and soft drinks will be available from the snack bar in the club house at advertised times and there will be a hog roast available from noon on Sunday.

The Bar will be open all weekend and there will be a disco in the club lounge on Saturday night.

Rochester is our nearest town, about a 20 minute drive away, and houses many restaurants etc.

Regular unleaded petrol of indeterminate source is available locally. If you require anything else, you are advised to source it en route.
